¹ Enrolment reported in Table 22 has also been included in the figures reported in Table 21.

² The totals in this table for 2002-03 school year represent 635 students. The number of students cannot be determined for previous years as the information was aggregated at the school by course and not by student. Also, in previous years other courses may have been offered through distance education but have not been reported in this table as they are currently not offered.
