1. Hearing was held on 13-January-2025 at 1:46 pm.
2. The applicant, [REDACTED], hereinafter referred to as the landlord, was represented at the hearing by [REDACTED], who attended via teleconference.
3. The respondent, [REDACTED], hereinafter referred to as the tenant, also attended via teleconference.

Preliminary Matters

4. The tenant acknowledged that he was served notice of the hearing more than 10 days in advance.

Issues before the Tribunal

5. Should the landlords' application for an order of vacant possession succeed?

Legislation and Policy

6. The jurisdiction of the Director of Residential Tenancies is outlined in sections 46 and 47 of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2018 (the Act).
7. Also considered and referred to in this decision are sections 19(1), 19(4), 24, and 34 of the Act, as follows:

Notice where failure to pay rent

19. (1) Notwithstanding subsection 18(2) and paragraph 18(3)(b),

(a) where the residential premises is rented from week to week and the amount of rent payable by a tenant is overdue for 3 days or more, the landlord may give the tenant notice that the rental agreement is terminated and that the tenant is required to vacate the residential premises on a specified date not less than 3 days after the notice is served on the tenant; and

- (b) where the residential premises is
  - (i) rented from month to month,
  - (ii) rented for a fixed term, or
  - (iii) a site for a mobile home, and the amount of rent payable by a tenant is overdue for 5 days or more, the landlord may give the tenant notice that the rental agreement is terminated and that the tenant is required to vacate the residential premises on a specified date not less than 10 days after the notice is served on the tenant.

(4) In addition to the requirements under section 34, a notice under this section shall

- (a) be signed by the landlord;
- (b) state the date on which the rental agreement terminates and the tenant is required to vacate the residential premises; and
- (c) be served in accordance with section 35.

Requirements for notices

34. A notice under this Act shall

- (a) be in writing in the form prescribed by the minister;
- (b) contain the name and address of the recipient;
- (c) identify the residential premises for which the notice is given; and
- (d) state the section of this Act under which the notice is given.

Issue 1: Vacant Possession

- 8. In order to receive an order for vacant possession, a landlord must have issued a valid termination notice. To be valid, a termination notice must comply with all relevant sections of the Act.
- 9. The landlord submitted a copy of a termination notice (LL#1). LL#1 is in writing in the form prescribed by the minister. It contains the name and address of the recipient. It identifies the residential premises it regards. It identifies itself as being issued under s. 19 of the Act. It therefore complies with s. 34.
- 10. The notice was signed by an agent of the landlord. It specifies the date on which the tenancy is to terminate and the tenants are to vacate the premises. The landlord testified that it was served on the tenant electronically in accordance with s. 35(2)(f). It therefore complies with s. 19(4) of the Act.
- 11. The notice was issued on 9-October-2024. At this point, rent had been overdue for more than 5 days. It gives a move out date of 31-October-2024, which is not less than 10 days after it was served. It therefore complies with s. 19(1)(b) of the Act.

12. LL#2 complies with all relevant sections of the Act and is therefore valid.

Decision

13. The valid termination notice gave a move out date of 31-October-2024. The tenancy agreement ended on that date. Insofar as the tenants still occupy the premises, they do so illegally. The landlord's application for an order of vacant possession succeeds.

Summary of Decision

14. The tenant shall vacate the premises immediately.

15. The tenant shall pay to the landlord any costs charged to the landlord, by the Office of the High Sherriff, should the landlord be required to have the Sheriff enforce the attached Order of Possession.
