

Residential Tenancies Tribunal

Application 2024-1095-NL

Oksana Tkachuk
Adjudicator

Introduction

1. Hearing was called at 9:15 a.m. on 8-January-2025.
2. The applicant, [REDACTED], represented by [REDACTED], hereinafter referred to as “the landlord” attended by teleconference.
3. The respondent, [REDACTED], hereinafter referred to as “the tenant” did not attend.

Preliminary Matters

4. The tenant was not present or represented at the hearing and I was unable to reach him by telephone at the start of the hearing. This Tribunal’s policies concerning notice requirements and hearing attendance have been adopted from the Rules of the Supreme Court, 1986. According to Rule 29.05(2)(a) respondents to an application must be served with claim and notice of the hearing 10 clear days prior to the hearing date and, where the respondent fails to attend the hearing, Rule 29.11(1) states that the hearing may proceed in the respondent’s absence so long as he has been properly served. The landlord submitted an affidavit with their application stating that they had served the tenant with the notice of hearing via prepaid registered mail, tracking [REDACTED] on 17-December-2024 (LL#1). In accordance with the Residential Tenancies Act, 2018 this is good service. As the tenant was properly served, and as any further delay in these proceedings would unfairly disadvantage the landlord, I proceeded with the hearing in his absence.
5. There is a written month-to-month rental agreement which commenced on 1-September-2023. Rent is $670.00 per month due on the first day of each month. A security deposit of $300.00 was paid on 22-August-2023 and is in the landlord’s possession.

Issues before the Tribunal

6. The landlord is seeking:
 - An Order for Vacant Possession of the rented premises.
 - Hearing expenses $20.00

Legislation and Policy

7. The jurisdiction of the Director of Residential Tenancies is outlined in sections 46 and 47 of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2018.
8. Also, relevant and considered in this decision is the following section of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2018: Section 20: Notice where material term of an agreement contravened. Also, relevant and considered is Section 12-1 of the Residential Tenancies Policy Manual: Recovery of Fees.

Issue # 1: Vacant Possession of the Rented Premises

Relevant Submissions:

9. The landlord submitted a copy of a termination notice given under Section 20: Notice where material term of agreement contravened. The notice is signed and dated for 29-August-2024, with a termination date of 30-September-2024 (LL#2).

Landlord's Position:

10. The landlord's representative testified that the tenant contravened Section 10(c) of the rental agreement by failing to provide updated statements of gross family income. The landlord submitted a copy of the rental agreement to support the claim (LL#3). The landlord's representative testified that a written notice of the contravention was sent to the tenant in May-2024 requesting the necessary information for the rental renewal and she stated that a second letter was forwarded to the tenant in July-2024. The landlord submitted a copy of the letter to support the claim (LL#4). The landlord's representative stated that as requested information was not submitted by the tenant in time, they issued a termination notice. The landlord's representative stated that termination notice was served at the residential premises by sticking to the door on 29-August-2024. The landlord is seeking vacant possession as the tenant failed to remedy the contravention within a reasonable time.

Analysis

11. Section 20 of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2018 states:

Notice where material term of agreement contravened

20. (2) Notwithstanding subsection 18(2) and paragraph 18(3)(b), where a tenant contravenes a material term of a rental agreement, the landlord may give the tenant written notice of the contravention, and if the tenant fails to remedy the contravention within a reasonable time after the notice has been served, the landlord may give the tenant notice that the rental agreement is terminated and the tenant is required to vacate the residential premises.

(3) Where the landlord gives a tenant notice under subsection (2) that a rental agreement is terminated, the notice shall be given

(b) not less than one month before the end of a rental period where the residential premises is

- i. rented from month to month,*
- ii. rented for a fixed term, or*
- iii. a site for a mobile home*

(4) In addition to the requirements under section 34, a notice under this section shall

- (a) be signed by the person giving the notice;
- (b) be given not later than the first day of a rental period;
- (c) state the date, which shall be the last day of a rental period, on which the rental agreement terminates and the date by which the tenant is required to vacate the residential premises; and
- (d) be served in accordance with section 35.

12. I accept the landlord's representative testimony as the tenant was not present or represented during the hearing. I accept the evidence which shows that the tenant had an obligation to submit the necessary financial statements to the landlord for rental renewal. I accept that the landlord made 2 attempts to retrieve the information before issuing the termination notice on 29-August-2024. In accordance with Section 20 of the Act as stated above, where a tenant contravenes a material term of a rental agreement, the landlord may give the tenant written notice of the contravention, which the landlord stated that they did on 23-August and if the tenant fails to remedy the contravention within a reasonable time, the landlord may give notice to terminate the tenancy.

13. I find that the termination notice was given not less than 1 month before the end of a rented period where the residential premises is rented from month to month, and as such I find that the termination notice is a valid notice.

Decision

14. The landlord's claim for an order for vacant possession of the rented premises succeeds.

Issue # 2: Hearing Expenses $20.00

15. The landlord paid an application fee of $20.00 to Residential Tenancies and provided a copy of the receipt (LL#5). The landlord is seeking hearing expenses to be paid in full. As the landlord's claim has been successful, the tenant shall pay the hearing expenses.

Decision

16. The landlord's claim for hearing expenses succeeds in the amount of $20.00.

Summary of Decision

17. The landlord shall retain $20.00 from the security deposit to cover hearing expenses.
18. The tenant shall vacate the property immediately.
19. The tenant shall pay to the landlord any costs charged to the landlord by the Office of the High Sheriff should the landlord be required to have the Sheriff enforce the attached Order of Possession.
20. The landlord will be awarded an Order of Possession.
