Introduction

1. Hearing was called at 9:06 a.m. on 5-March-2025.
2. The applicant, [REDACTED], hereinafter referred to as "the tenant", attended via teleconference.
3. The respondent, [REDACTED], hereinafter referred to as "the landlord", attended via teleconference.

Preliminary Matters

4. The tenant submitted an affidavit with their application stating that they had served the landlord with the notice of hearing electronically via email to; [REDACTED] on 19-February-2025 (TT#1). The landlord did not explicitly confirm receipt of the hearing notice; however, he expressed his willingness to proceed with the application. As the tenant submitted proof of the landlord's email address (TT#2) and evidence of the sent notice (TT#3), I accept that the landlord was properly served. In accordance with the Residential Tenancies Act, 2018 this is good service, the hearing proceeded.
5. There was a verbal month-to-month rental agreement which commenced in February-2021, when the landlord purchased the property, however the tenant resided in the unit since September-2020. Rent was $1100.00 per month, due on the first of each month. The tenant vacated on 1-December-2024. A security deposit of $500.00 was collected on 27-July-2020 and is in the landlord's possession.

Issues before the Tribunal

6. The tenants are seeking:
  - Refund of Security deposit plus interest $505.37;

Legislation and Policy

7. The jurisdiction of the Director of Residential Tenancies is outlined in sections 46 and 47 of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2018.

8. Also, relevant and considered in this decision is the following section of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2018: Section 14: Security deposit.

Issue # 1: Refund of Security deposit $500.00

Tenant's position

9. The tenant stated that the security deposit was not returned by the landlord after they vacated the rental unit on 1-December-2024. The tenant is seeking refund of security deposit.

Landlord's position

10. The landlord confirmed that security deposit is still in his possession.

Analysis

11. Section 14 of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2018 deals with security deposits, and the relevant subsections state:

Security deposit

14. (8) A security deposit is not an asset of the landlord but is held by the landlord in trust and may be used, retained or disbursed only as provided in this section.
- (9) Not later than 10 days after the tenant vacates the residential premises, the landlord shall return the security deposit to the tenant unless the landlord has a claim for all or part of the security deposit.
- (10) Where a landlord believes he or she has a claim for all or part of the security deposit,
  - (a) the landlord and tenant may enter into a written agreement on the disposition of the security deposit; or
  - (b) the landlord or the tenant may apply to the director under section 42 to determine the disposition of the security deposit.
- (11) Where a tenant makes an application under paragraph (10)(b), the landlord has 10 days from the date the landlord is served with a copy of the tenant's application to make an application to the director under paragraph (10)(b).
- (12) A landlord who does not make an application in accordance with subsection (11) shall return the security deposit to the tenant.

12. In accordance with section 14 of the Act as stated above, the landlord did not return the security deposit within the 10-day time frame, the landlord has failed to serve the tenant with application to the Director to retain the security deposit. The landlord confirmed that security deposit is still in his possession and for those reasons I find that the landlord shall refund the security deposit to the tenant.
13. Pursuant to the Residential Tenancies Act, 2018 the landlord must pay interest on a security deposit to the tenants for the entire period that the landlord has had the security deposit. The annual interest was 0% for 2020-2023 and currently is 1% for 2024-2025.

Decision

14. The tenant's claim succeeds in the amount of $505.89

Summary of Decision

15. The landlord shall refund the security deposit plus interest to the tenant in the amount of $505.89.
