Oksana Tkachuk
Adjudicator

Introduction

1. Hearing was called at 9:15 a.m. on 5-August-2025.
2. The applicant, [REDACTED], represented by [REDACTED], hereinafter referred to as “the landlord”, attended via teleconference.
3. The respondent, [REDACTED], hereinafter referred to as “the tenant”, did not attend.

Preliminary Matters

4. The tenant was not present or represented at the hearing and I was unable to reach them by telephone at the start of the hearing. This Tribunal’s policies concerning notice requirements and hearing attendance have been adopted from the Rules of the Supreme Court, 1986. According to Rule 29.05(2)(a) respondents to an application must be served with claim and notice of the hearing 10 clear days prior to the hearing date and, where the respondent fails to attend the hearing, Rule 29.11(1) states that the hearing may proceed in the respondent’s absence so long as they have been properly served.
5. The landlord submitted an affidavit with their application stating that they had served the tenant with the notice of hearing via prepaid registered mail, tracking # [REDACTED] on 2-July-2025 (LL#1). In accordance with the Residential Tenancies Act, 2018 this is good service. As the tenant was properly served, and as any further delay in these proceedings would unfairly disadvantage the landlord, I proceeded with the hearing in their absence.
6. There is a written month-to-month rental agreement which commenced on 1-February-2022. Rent is $505.00 per month and due on the first of each month. A security deposit was not collected.
7. The landlord’s representative amended the application to include hearing expenses of $20.00.

Issues before the Tribunal

 - An Order for Vacant Possession of the rented premises;
 - Hearing expenses $20.00.

11. The landlord's representative testified that they issued a standard termination notice on 25-April-2025 under Section 18: Notice of termination of rental agreement to the tenant to vacate the premises on 31-July-2025. The landlord's representative stated that they served the tenant with the termination notice via sticking it to the door on 25-April-2025 and submitted an affidavit of service (LL#2) and a copy of the termination notice to support their claim (LL#3).

13. I accept the landlord's representative's testimony that the termination notice was delivered in compliance with the legislative requirements on 25-April-2025, as the tenant was not present or represented during the hearing to provide testimony. The termination notice submitted by the landlord meets the requirements of not less than 3 months before the end of the rental period after notice is served where residential premises is rented month-to-month. In accordance with the Residential Tenancies Act, 2018 as stated above, the termination notice meets the requirements of the Act and is a valid notice.

Issue #2: Hearing expenses $20.00.

Relevant Submission

16. The landlord paid $20.00 for the application fee and is seeking reimbursement. The landlord's representative submitted a copy of the receipt to support the claim (LL#4).
