Decision 22-0571-00

---

Introduction

1. Hearing was called at 2:01 p.m. on 04-October-2022.
2. The applicant, [REDACTED], represented by [REDACTED], hereinafter referred to as “the landlord” attended by teleconference.
3. The respondent, [REDACTED], hereinafter referred to as “the tenant” did not attend.

Preliminary Matters

4. The tenant was not present or represented at the hearing and I was unable to reach him by telephone at the start of the hearing. This Tribunal’s policies concerning notice requirements and hearing attendance have been adopted from the Rules of the Supreme Court, 1986. According to Rule 29.05(2)(a) respondents to an application must be served with claim and notice of the hearing 10 clear days prior to the hearing date and, where the respondent fails to attend the hearing, Rule 29.11(1) states that the hearing may proceed in the respondent’s absence so long as he has been properly served. The landlord submitted an affidavit (LL#01) with their application stating that they had served the tenant with notice of the hearing, by prepaid registered mail on 05-August-2022, I tracked this package and it indicates that it was delivered on 09-August-2022. As the tenant was properly served, and as any further delay in these proceedings would unfairly disadvantage the landlord, I proceeded with the hearing in his absence.

Issues before the Tribunal

5. The landlord is seeking:
  - vacant possession of the rental premises
  - hearing expenses reimbursed $20.00

Legislation and Policy

6. The jurisdiction of the Director of Residential Tenancies is outlined in sections 46 and 47 of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2018.
7. Also relevant and considered in this decision is the following section of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2018: Section 18: Notice of termination of rental agreement.

Issue 1: Vacant Possession of the Rental Premises

Relevant Submissions

8. The landlord said that they have a written monthly rental agreement with the tenant. He moved in on 01-February-2021 and pays $865.00 each month. His rental period is from the first day of the month until the last and rent is due in full on the first day of each month. The landlord said that the tenant paid a security deposit of $372.00 on 26-February-2021; they are still in possession of this deposit.
9. The landlord submitted a termination notice (LL#02), it is a Section 18 notice in letter form that was dated and signed for 17-June-2022 with a termination date of 30-September-2022. The landlord said that they delivered the notice on 29-June-2022, they knocked on the tenant's door, and he didn't answer so they posted the notice to the door. The tenant is still living there.
10. The landlord is seeking an order of vacant possession.
