

Residential Tenancies Tribunal

Application 2023-0854-NL

Decision 2023-0854-NL

Michael Reddy
Adjudicator

Introduction

1. The hearing was called at 9:15 AM on 18 October 2023 via teleconference.
2. The applicant, [REDACTED], represented by [REDACTED] and hereinafter referred to as "the landlord", attended the hearing.
3. The respondent, [REDACTED], hereinafter referred to as "the tenant", did not attend the hearing.
4. The details of the claims were presented as a written monthly rental agreement with rent set at $263.00 and due on the 1st of each month. There was no security deposit collected on this tenancy. The tenant moved into the rental unit located at [REDACTED], [REDACTED], on 1 October 2022 and remains in the property on the date of the hearing (18 October 2023).
5. The landlord issued a termination notice on 24 August 2023 to terminate the tenancy on 15 September 2023 under section 19 of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2018 (Exhibit L # 1). The tenant was served by registered mail (Exhibit L # 2) an application for dispute resolution.
6. In a proceeding under the Residential Tenancies Act, 2018, the applicant has the burden of proof. This means the applicant has the responsibility to prove that the outcome they are requesting should be granted. In these proceedings the standard of proof is referred to as the balance of probabilities which means the applicant has to establish that his/her account of events are more likely than not to have happened.

Preliminary Matters

7. The landlord amended her application at the hearing to include rental arrears owing ($901.45) between 19 July 2023 and 31 October 2023, along with hearing expenses.

8. The landlord offered testimony during the hearing and did not call any witnesses.
9. The tenant was not present or represented at this hearing and I was unable to reach her by telephone at the start of the hearing. I unsuccessfully attempted to reach the tenant at 9:04 AM at a telephone number offered by the landlord (████████). This Tribunal's polices concerning notice requirements and hearing attendance have been adopted from the Rules of the Supreme Court, 1986. According to Rule 29.05(2)(a) respondents to an application must be served with claim and notice of the hearing 10 clear days prior to the hearing date and, where the respondent fails to attend the hearing, Rule 29.11(1) states that the hearing may proceed in the respondent's absence so long as she has been properly served. The landlord submitted an affidavit with her application stating she served the tenant, by registered mail, on 25 September 2023. As the tenant was properly served, and as further delay in the proceedings would unfairly disadvantage the landlord, I proceeded with the hearing in her absence.

14. The landlord testified the tenant had not paid a security deposit on this tenancy, as this was the policy of the ██████████ was not to collect security deposits on units. The landlord offered evidence that attempts were made to rectify the rental arrears as prior notice was sent to the tenant to deal with the rental arrears (Exhibit L # 1).

15. The landlord stated she was seeking rental arrears between 19 July 2023 and 31 October 2023.
16. The landlord offered testimony the tenant last rental payment made by the tenant was in July 2023. The landlord offered a Statement of Account (Exhibit # 4). This evidence indicates the following information:

Month	Rent Due	Payment	Total
July 19, 2023 (13 day X $8.65)	$112.45	$0.00	$112.45
August 2023	$263.00	$0.00	$375.45
September 2023	$263.00	$0.00	$638.45
October 2023	$263.00	$0.00	$901.45

Analysis

17. Non-payment of rent is a violation of the rental agreement. The landlord has amended the claim at the outset to add rent to include rent between 19 July 2023 and 31 October 2023. This tribunal does not consider future rent.
18. The landlord submitted Notice under Section 19 (Exhibit L # 1). As such, rent was due 1 September 2023 and rental arrears owing by the tenant equaling $638.45 including up to 31 September 2023.
19. Rent for October 2023 can only be calculated up to and including the day of the hearing (18 October 2023). That calculation is $($263.00 \times 12 \text{ months}) = $3,156.00 \div 365 \text{ days} = $8.65 \text{ per day} \times 18 \text{ days} = \155.70 . Rent for 1 October 2023 – 18 October 2023 is $155.70.
20. I accept the landlord's claim that the tenant has not paid rent as required. I do not accept the tenant owes rental arrears in the amount of $901.45. The tenant owes $794.15. Current Balance of rental arrears is $794.15.
21. Additionally, the tenant is responsible for daily rent in the amount of $ 8.65 beginning on 19 October 2023 and continuing until the day the landlord obtains vacant possession of the rented premises.

Decision

22. The landlord's claim for a payment of the rent succeeds in the amount of $794.15.

Issue 2: Vacant Possession of Rented Premises

23. The landlord submitted termination Notice under Section 19, notice where failure to pay rent (Exhibit L # 1).

Analysis

24. Section 19 of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2018 states:

- a. Notice where failure to pay rent
- b. 19. (1) Notwithstanding subsection 18(2) and paragraph 18(3)(b),
 - i. (b) where the residential premises is
 - (i) rented from month to month,
 - (ii) rented for a fixed term, or
 - (iii) a site for a mobile home, and
 - c. the amount of rent payable by a tenant is overdue for 5 days or more, the landlord may give the tenant notice that the rental agreement is terminated and that the tenant is required to vacate the residential premises on a specified date not less than 10 days after the notice is served on the tenant.
 - i. (4) In addition to the requirements under section 34, a notice under this section shall
 - (a) be signed by the landlord;
 - (b) state the date on which the rental agreement terminates and the tenant is required to vacate the residential premises; and
 - (c) be served in accordance with section 35.

25. The tenant had been in rental arrears in excess of the 5 days when the notice was served on 24 August 2023 to be out of [REDACTED] on 15 September 2023. The tenant remains in the property following being issued the notice to vacate and has been charged additional rent. The termination notice is a valid notice.

26. I find the termination notice is a valid notice.

Decision

27. The landlord's claim for an order for vacant possession does succeed.

Issue 3: Hearing Expense

28. The landlord offered evidence that hearing expense included the application fee of $20.00 and requested the cost of registered mail be included in with the hearing expenses. That said, while the receipt for the $20.00 application for hearing was entered into evidence (Exhibit L # 5), there was no evidence related to the registered mail fee.
29. I find the landlord's claim for hearing expense fee succeeds in the amount of $20.00.

Decision

30. The landlord's claim for hearing expenses succeeds in the amount of $20.00.

Summary of Decision

31. The landlord is entitled to the following:

- A payment of $814.15, as determined as follows:

a)	Rent owing	$794.15
b)	Hearing Expense.....	$20.00
c)	Total.....	$814.15
- An order for vacant possession of the rented premises,
- A payment of a daily rate of rent in the amount of $8.65, beginning by 19 October 2023 and continuing to the date the landlord obtains vacant possession of the rental unit,
- The tenant shall also pay to the landlord any costs charged to the landlord by the Office of the High Sheriff should the landlord be required to have the Sheriff enforce the attached Order of Possession.
