SCHEDULE D

Rules for Ticket Lotteries

1. The total value of tickets sold for any one event shall not exceed 12 times the total retail value of the prizes.
2. For a ticket lottery to be approved there shall be a reasonable expectation of a 50% return after expenses to the licensee.
3. For a ticket lottery with a potential prize payout of $100,000 or more a detailed business plan shall be submitted with the application detailing the following:
  - (a) advertising and marketing;
  - (b) details of the prize including whether the prize has been purchased or if on consignment;
  - (c) ticket distribution;
  - (d) staffing and salaries and commissions; and
  - (e) budget and projected profits.
4. All tickets shall be consecutively numbered.

5. Where the presence of the holder of a ticket is a required condition to win, this shall be stated on the ticket and participants shall be entitled to be present at the drawing without additional charge.
6. Discounted prices shall not be allowed for ticket sales unless there is a method that ensures financial accountability that has been approved by the division.
7. When a series of draws occurs according to a fixed schedule, i.e., a cash calendar, the ticket price can be reduced based upon the percentage of prize value remaining. Using the cash calendar as an example, each month, the ticket price can be reduced by 1/12th. The licensee shall state the discount procedure in the ticket rules.
8. Unsolicited tickets shall not be distributed to the public.
9. Ticket portions or shares shall not be offered for sale.
10. The value of the prize shall include the amount of any duty, taxes, sales taxes and other costs. Prizes shall be awarded free and clear of any mortgages, liens, or any other encumbrances.
11. The prize shall be awarded at the location of the draw, unless otherwise stated.
12. The prize shall be valued by a qualified independent third party if it is a collectible or antique prize purchased by or donated to the licensee.
13. The licensee may accept cheques or credit payments, and shall be responsible for ensuring that the proceeds from ticket sales are validated before the prize is awarded. If the proceeds cannot be verified for a winning ticket a subsequent draw shall take place to award the prize.
14. (1) A licensee may operate an early bird draw.

(2) An early bird draw shall not be held unless approved by the division and a minimum of 14 days is allotted to account for tickets before the draw takes place.

- (3) A shorter period than that provided in subrule (2) may be approved by the division where a request is made in writing setting out the method that will be used to ensure accountability.
- (4) The ticket shall indicate the cut-off date for an early bird draw.
15. Draw dates may be changed only on written approval of the division. Extensions shall not be granted after ticket sales have commenced.
16. The sequence of drawing to award prizes shall be announced before the commencement of the draw. All winning tickets shall not be returned for future draws unless otherwise stated by the licensee.
17. All ticket draws shall be conducted in the presence of 2 witnesses who shall sign a confirmation of their presence for each lottery event.
18. Where the winner is under 19 years of age, the licensee shall deliver the prize to the winner's legal guardian.
19. Winners of prizes shall be advised of the results of the draw by telephone, registered mail, email or in person. The notice shall indicate how the prize is to be claimed. Prizes shall be distributed to the winning ticket holders as soon as possible after the date of the ticket draw.
20. For prizes over $500, the licensee shall publish and submit along with the financial report, the winning numbers, names and addresses of the winners of prizes.
21. Where a prize is over $500 and is not claimed within 60 days of the draw, another draw shall be made. Where the prize is again unclaimed, a subsequent draw shall be made within 30 days. Unclaimed prizes after this, including unclaimed prizes with a value of $500 or less, shall be included in the net proceeds to be used for, or paid to the charitable or religious objects, as approved in the application.
22. All claimed prizes shall be paid out before the end of the licence period.

23. Only direct expenses required to operate the ticket lottery shall be deducted from gaming revenue.

Paper-Based Ticket Lotteries

24. Tickets shall be commercially printed where the prize value is greater than $500.

25. (1) Each ticket shall consist of 2 sections, each severable from the other, and the section to be delivered to the purchaser shall contain the following:

- (a) the name of licensee;
- (b) the draw location and dates;
- (c) the description, number and retail value of the prizes, whether donated or purchased;
- (d) the ticket number;
- (e) the total number of tickets printed;
- (f) the selling price of the ticket;
- (g) the licence number; and
- (h) the name of the printer.

- (2) The section to be retained by the licensee shall contain the following:

- (a) a place for the name, address, telephone number and email address of the purchaser;
- (b) the ticket number; and
- (c) the licence number.

26. For ticket lotteries where tickets are sold and the draw is conducted on the same day at a single premises and the potential prize payout exceeds $500, only paragraphs 25(1)(a), (d), (f), (g), (h) and 25(2)(b) shall be required.

27. For ticket lotteries where tickets are sold and the draw is conducted on the same day at a single premises, and the potential prize payout does not exceed $500, only paragraphs 25(1)(d) and 25(2)(b) shall be required. Tickets shall be retained for a period of one week after the draw.
28. With the exception of ticket lotteries where tickets are sold and the draw is conducted on the same day at a single premises and the potential prize payout does not exceed $500, a draft or hand drawn facsimile of the proposed ticket shall accompany the application and a true copy of the ticket for each series shall be forwarded immediately upon printing to the division.
29. The licensee shall retain all unsold tickets and stubs of sold tickets for a period of one year from the date of the last draw.
30. The licensee shall retain, as part of its gaming records, the purchase invoices for all tickets and the invoices shall specify the first and last of the sequential numbers of the tickets for each type of ticket.

Electronic Ticket Lotteries

31. The purchaser shall receive a ticket as a transaction record for one or more chances to win an electronic ticket lottery once payment has been processed.
32. Each electronically generated ticket shall contain the following:
  - (a) the name and email address of the licensee;
  - (b) the licence number;
  - (c) the draw location and date;
  - (d) the description, number and retail value of the prizes, whether donated or purchased;
  - (e) the ticket number;
  - (f) the total number of tickets available for purchase;
  - (g) the selling price of the ticket;

- (h) the issue date and time in 24 hour format showing the hour and minute that the ticket was issued;
- (i) a unique validation number or barcode; and
- (j) information on where the draw results will be available.

33. For electronic ticket lotteries where tickets are sold and the draw is conducted on the same day at a single premises, the electronically generated ticket shall contain the following:

- (a) the name and email address of the licensee;
- (b) the licence number;
- (c) the ticket number;
- (d) the selling price of the ticket;
- (e) the issue date and time in 24 hour format showing the hour and minute that the ticket was issued;
- (f) a unique validation number or barcode;
- (g) a raffle sales unit identifier from which the ticket was generated;
- (h) a statement that the winner must have winning ticket to claim a prize; and
- (i) the words “retain ticket until winner is confirmed”.

34. The electronic gaming equipment shall generate a unique counterfoil for each ticket number. A counterfoil shall be printed or entered electronically according to the type of draw to be conducted. Printed counterfoils shall be the same size, shape and weight. All counterfoils must have an equal chance of being selected. A counterfoil shall contain the following:

- (a) the name, email address and telephone number of the purchaser;
- (b) the event identifier;

- (c) the licence number;
- (d) the ticket number;
- (e) the issue date and time in 24 hour format showing the hour and minute that the ticket was issued; and
- (f) a unique validation number or barcode.

35. For electronic ticket lotteries where tickets are sold and the draw is conducted on the same day at a single premises the counterfoil shall contain the following:

- (a) the event identifier;
- (b) the licence number;
- (c) the ticket number;
- (d) the issue date and time in 24 hour format showing the hour and minute that the ticket was issued;
- (e) a raffle sales unit identifier from which the ticket was generated; and
- (f) a unique validation number or barcode.

36. Multiple tickets may be sold for a discounted price. A unique group number shall be printed on each discounted ticket, corresponding to the price group from which the discounted ticket was purchased.

37. Where a series of electronic ticket lotteries is conducted under a single licence, tickets for each ticket draw shall be differentiated from the other tickets used in the series.

38. Where a series of electronic ticket draws are conducted on the same day at a single premises, the tickets sold for each draw shall be uniquely identifiable from tickets sold for other draws conducted on the same day.

39. Results of the electronic ticket lottery become official and final after the winning ticket is verified by the licensee. The electronic gaming equipment shall display the winning ticket number on all capable display devices intended to be viewed by participants.
40. The licensee shall maintain a report that reconciles all electronic ticket sales including sold, unsold and voided tickets for the electronic ticket lottery purchase period, for a period of one year from the date of the last draw.

19. Schedule E of the regulations is amended by adding immediately after rule 11 the following:

12. All claimed prizes shall be paid out before the end of the licence period.

20. Schedule F of the regulations is amended by adding immediately after rule 19 the following:

20. All claimed prizes shall be paid out before the end of the licence period.

21. (1) Schedule G of the regulations is amended by adding immediately after rule 5 the following:

5.1 All claimed prizes shall be paid out before the end of the licence period.

(2) Rule 14(f) of Schedule G of the regulations is repealed and the following substituted:

(f) a place for the name, address, telephone number and email address of the purchaser;

(3) Rule 15 of Schedule G of the regulations is repealed and the following substituted:

15. Winners of prizes shall be notified of the results of the pool by telephone, registered mail, email or in person.
