Public Advisory: Public Cautioned About Illegal Investment Activity

by Bambi Land Inc.

Service NL advises that Bambi Land Inc., owned by Israt Khan, is trading in securities and soliciting Newfoundlanders and Labradorians to invest money via social media and through an advertisement in The Telegram. Neither this entity nor the owner has ever been registered under the Securities Act to solicit or trade in securities in this jurisdiction.

If consumers have invested money they are advised to notify Service NL, Financial Services Regulation Division at 709-729-2596.

As they are unregistered entities, Bambi Land Inc. and Israt Khan are prohibited from acting, advertising, soliciting, conducting or negotiating directly or indirectly in furtherance of the trade of securities in the Province of Newfoundland and Labrador.

Service NL encourages members of the public to always thoroughly research investment opportunities before investing in them. Investors can check registrations by visiting the Canadian Securities Administration website at www.securities-administrators.ca and clicking on National Registration Search. If the company or individual is not registered, members of the public are encouraged to notify Service NL by email at servicenlinfo@gov.nl.ca, or by calling the Financial Services Regulation Division at 709-729-2596.
