Agenda Items:

1. Welcome and Introductions.

- The Chair welcomed guests to the meeting.

2. Presentation From First Voice on Universal Basic Income.

- Justin Campbell provided an overview of First Voice Urban Indigenous Coalition. The coalition, led by First Light Friendship Centre in partnerships with 11 other organizations and nine community advocates, brings together stakeholders and decision-makers to advance truth and reconciliation in Newfoundland and Labrador.
- The group outlined how a basic income would benefit Indigenous people in Newfoundland and Labrador, particularly Indigenous women, and Urban Indigenous people.
- The group presented statistical information from their submission to the Minimum Wage Review related to poverty among different Indigenous Peoples in the province.
- The group also referenced the Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls (MMIWG) Call to Justice 4.5: "We call upon all governments to establish a guaranteed annual livable income for all Canadians, including Indigenous Peoples, to meet all their social and economic needs. This income must take into account diverse needs, realities, and geographic locations."

3. Discussion.

- Attendees discussed the needs of the Urban Indigenous population in Newfoundland and Labrador.

4. Next meeting.

- As Monday, May 20th, 2024, is a holiday, the next meeting of the APC will be Monday, May 27, 2024.
